State law requires that a 20% administration fee be added to the total amount of Court ordered restitution to offset the cost of collection.

Payment example: If the offender makes a $120 payment, $100 will be distributed to the victim.

Restitution is not enforceable if an offender is in jail or prison.

If the Judge/Board determines there is a willful failure to pay, supervision may be revoked or payment schedule altered.

If the Judge/Board determines there is an inability to pay for good cause, payment schedule may be altered, converted to civil judgment or restitution eliminated. For probation cases, the judge may extend probation.

For crimes committed after Dec. 31, 2010, an offender may be converted to administrative monitoring. PPP continues to collect money until a judge ends the monitoring or offender dies.

IMPORTANT
 Victims must submit a current mailing address to the SC Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. It is the victim's responsibility to inform SCDPPPS of any address changes. For more information, contact the Office of Victim Services at 1-888-551-4118 or 803-734-9367 in Columbia, or via email at VICTIMSERVICES@PPP.SC.GOV.

This project is supported by a National Crime Victims' Right Week Community Awareness Project subgrant awarded by the National Association of VOCA Assistance Administrators under a Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant from the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.
